Chapter 1 by HereComes Gracie

She was walking in a small yet gigantic place that she called home. She looked at one of the mirrors and saw a man. She waved and said quietly to herself, friend. She looked down and brought her hand up slowly and waved. The boy seemed to see her because he said, I know what it feels like to be in there. She looked up at him and said, are you talking to me? He looked at her with his beautiful blue eyes and said, gettally, friend. Her eyes perked up and said, did you just say friend? Yes, why, he asked. Because I've been in here for so long that I have no friends. Well when I was in there too I lost all my friends because they thought that I died.
